

Application for coverage of JSHS's 100th anniversary ceremony and AHC2023

If you would like to register as a press member for the 100th Anniversary Ceremony of the Japanese Society for Horticultural Science (JSHS) and the 4th Asian Horticultural Congress (AHC2023), please check the coverage conditions below and apply using the Google Form. JSHS Secretariat will contact you regarding the availability of coverage.

Conditions for coverage by the press

1. Press registration application must be submitted by Tuesday, August 22, 2023.
2. On the day of the press coverage, please register at the venue and wear the name card distributed in advance and the armband provided by your company inside the venue.
3. We will not accept any press coverage of content that has not been applied for in advance.
4. If you have a specific person to be interviewed, please obtain the permission of the person to be interviewed before applying. We will only allow you to interview a person if you have the permission of the person to be interviewed in advance.
5. The organizers will not be able to provide contact information for the interviewees, so please contact the representatives of their affiliations, etc., as disclosed on the website.
6. Please obtain permission from the interviewee before publishing the content of the interview.
7. The press is not allowed to speak or ask questions at the presentation. Please ask questions of the interviewees during breaks or other times.
8. Please do not interfere with the general audience or the progress of the presentation in the venue.
9. Recording and photography are prohibited in the venue as a general rule. At the 100th anniversary ceremony of JSHS on August 28, photography is permitted with prior application.
10. If you have any other requests, please let us know in advance via Google Form.
11. Please contact JSHS Secretariat (jshs@nacos.com) in advance regarding the journal in which the article will appear and the date of publication. Also, please send us a copy of the article within two weeks of its publication (electronic media are also acceptable, as long as you can show how the article was published).
